

PRESS NOTE

The Government is seized of the matter regarding the demands of the Head Masters Association regarding regularization of headmasters) promoted on adhoc basis as Principals. Since the procedure of regularization is to be done in Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission and on account of procedural requirement, this process is likely to take some time owing to voluminous information namely Integrity Certificates of the all eligible Headmasters, List of eligible Headmasters who have been promoted on adhoc basis, list of Headmasters facing departmental action /vigilance enquiry and the complete ACR folders of the incumbents. However the Department has been asked to finalize the same by December 2011.

Regarding the matter of ceiling of age of 57 years for promotion as Deputy Directors, the matter of creation of the inspection Staff, and the renaming of the post of Principal DIET as Deputy Director, Director Higher Education will be having a meeting with the representatives of the Head Masters' Association on 14.10.2011 at 11.00. AM and will submit the report to the government.
