1. All the Principals of Govt. Colleges
in Himachal Pradesh.

Subject: Instructions regarding anti-copying in colleges.
Memo:-

As you are well aware that the menace of copying has afflicted our educational/examinations system to the extent of virtually crippling it.

It is the moral duties of all concerned particularly Principals and Teaching staff in the institutions to do their utmost in checking this unfortunate practice and hence help in cleansing the system of this malady.

The Head of the Institution alongwith the staff members should also motivate the Student's Central Association representatives to help the college in combating this practice and who should further guide their cadres in this direction.

In addition to this, the subject should also be broached in the PTA meetings and the parents/guardians should also be apprised of the anti-copying measures and their assistance in guiding their wards to desist from indulgence in this practice must also be solicited.

In this connection, you are hereby directed to take all these remedial measures in eradicating this menace of copying from the system of examinations in the colleges and schools of Himachal Pradesh as per the provisions contained in Chapter VI of the Hand Book (First Ordinance) Vol.-I of Himachal Pradesh University under Section 6.34, 6.35, 6.36 & 6.37 .
